

State of New Jersey

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

PO Box 001

TRENTON, NJ 08625-0001

CHRIS CHRISTIE
Governor

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. App. A:9-33 et seq., and in light of Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration regulation 49 C.F.R. Part 390.23(a)(1)(i), which allows for an exemption to the hours of service regulations in 49 C.F.R. Part 395 upon declaration of emergency by the Governor or an authorized representative, the Governor hereby declares an emergency due to the lack of propane heating fuel product due to local market conditions which is impacting the delivery of heating fuel in New Jersey and could result in a threat to public health and safety. The emergency is limited to the following:

Type of Operation: Delivery of propane heating fuels to residential and commercial establishments.

Effective Date: December 23, 2013

Termination Date: January 11, 2014

Type of Exemption and Special Conditions:

- Restriction of the number of hours that a driver of a commercial motor carrier may drive on duty in 7/8 consecutive days without taking 34 or more consecutive hours off-duty is waived. The requirements of 11 hours driving, 14 hours on duty, is waived as well, provided a driver who informs a motor carrier that he or she needs immediate rest shall be given a minimum of 10 consecutive off-duty hours before the driver may return to service.
- Limited to operators of vehicles making propane heating fuel deliveries to residential or commercial establishments within the State of New Jersey and operators of vehicles transporting heating fuels from terminal locations to heating fuel delivery companies.
- All regulations pertaining to Commercial Driver License requirements, Controlled Substances and Alcohol Use and Testing requirements and Financial Responsibility requirements remain in force and effect for all motor carriers and drivers.
- Motor carriers that have an Out-of-Service Order in effect, or a suspension or revocation of a New Jersey State Certificate as a motor carrier of property, are not eligible to take advantage of the relief from the regulation that this order provides.

DATE: 12/19/13

CHRIS CHRISTIE
GOVERNOR

[Great Seal of New Jersey]
State of New Jersey
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
PO Box 001
TRENTON, NJ 08625-0001

CHRIS CHRISTIE
Governor

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. App. A:9-33 et seq., and in light of Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration regulation 49 C.F.R. Part 390.23(a)(1)(i), which allows for an exemption to the hours of service regulations in 49 C.F.R. Part 395 upon declaration of emergency by the Governor or an authorized representative, the Governor hereby declares an emergency due to the lack of propane heating fuel product due to local market conditions which is impacting the delivery of heating fuel in New Jersey and could result in a threat to public health and safety. The emergency is limited to the following:

Type of Operation: Delivery of propane heating fuels to residential and commercial establishments.

Effective Date: December 23, 2013

Termination Date: January 11, 2014

Type of Exemption and Special Conditions:

- Restriction of the number of hours that a driver of a commercial motor carrier may drive on duty in 7/8 consecutive days without taking 34 or more consecutive hours off-duty is waived. The requirements of 11 hours driving, 14 hours on duty, is waived as well, provided a driver who informs a motor carrier that he or she needs immediate rest shall be given a minimum of 10 consecutive off-duty hours before the driver may return to service.
- Limited to operators of vehicles making propane heating fuel deliveries to residential or commercial establishments within the State of New Jersey and operators of vehicles transporting heating fuels from terminal locations to heating fuel delivery companies.
- All regulations pertaining to Commercial Driver License requirements, Controlled Substances and Alcohol Use and Testing requirements and Financial Responsibility requirements remain in force and effect for all motor carriers and drivers.
- Motor carriers that have an Out-of-Service Order in effect, or a suspension or revocation of a New Jersey State Certificate as a motor carrier of property, are not eligible to take advantage of the relief from the regulation that this order provides.

DATE: [12/19/13]

/signature/

CHRIS CHRISTIE
Governor